Rehearsal 13 of 13

WE'RE IN WOTTON THIS WEEK!

Less than a week to go! Now would be a good time to practise... and get your scores organised so that you can move smoothly from one piece to the next on Saturday night.

Bring a bottle of water in case of dry throats – no coffee break refreshments available at St Mary's.

Be helpful if you possibly can; we'll be in Church from 6.30pm to do the setting-up. If you can't get there early, then you can always help at the other end of the rehearsal... we have to leave the Church as we find it.

Riser Blocks

If you are storing riser blocks in your loft, please remember to bring them.

Seating arrangements:

PLEASE co-operate and comply with Anne's directions with a gracious smile (and the minimum of chatter). This year, with increased numbers, the tenors and basses coming centre and forward, and two-choir pieces, you may well be asked to sit somewhere other than in your customary seat; take it on the chin. The world won't come to an end if you are not sitting next to your bestest pal for a few hours.

Concert Tickets

Please complete the front of your envelope and hand in to Lorna.

TYNDALERS: Concert Day Rehearsal

Our organist is playing at a Bristol wedding at 1pm, so we shall gather for rehearsal start at 2.45pm (a little later than usual).

ABCs: Concert Day Rehearsal

I can't confirm this until after I post these notices, so take this as a 'maybe' rather than a firm arrangement.

The 'Gazette' article in December was instrumental in publicising the course and generating so much interest. Reporter Claire Marshall wishes to do a closing piece to round off the project, and is threatening to bring a photographer. I have suggested Claire comes to St Mary's for 2.30pm, to allow for a press call; can I ask ABCs to come for 2.30pm (ie 15 minutes early)? I'll confirm on Monday night.

Also, Bethan will be in the audience on Saturday night: make her proud!

AGM Notice for 14th July

Members: If you didn't pick up your copy last week, please do so this week.

And finally...

From a church bulletin:

"The church will host an evening of fine dining, super entertainment and gracious hostility."

On Saturday Night:

Heads Up! Scores Up! Eyebrows Up!

Watch Ian!

Be like the Queen Mum: Smile at the Public!

Sing your Hearts Out!

(Mime if you have to)

And E N J O Y !

(I will have the usual spies in the audience taking notes – any miserable faces or, worse still, dropped heads will be named and shamed in dispatches.)
