Rehearsal 5 of 13

New faces

Rosemary Robinson and Angela MacNair (altos), and Niall Bird (tenor !!!) have come along to try Tyndale on for size for a week or two before Treasurer Lorna applies the thumbscrews and extracts subs. Please make them feel very welcome; now that we are even larger in numbers, it's easy to miss new faces, and probably even more daunting for any newcomer. We wouldn't want that; that's not the Tyndale way.

Registers

Thank you to the 4 members who offered to take care of the registers whilst I'm away counting seal pups, cough-twitching, and crab-scoffing. Anne Shipton got to me first, so is doing the honours.

Name Badges

It might be wise to wear these for a few weeks, for the benefit of new members (and those of us who keep having senior moments).

Workshop/European Sacred Music

Those of you who have already paid for the Perrin Workshop score hire can now have your European Sacred Music book so that you can swot up the pieces. (The list of pieces is on the folded brochure/ on website.) Please see Doreen.

Some of the pieces are also in rehearsal file format on the website – thanks to John Hicks. Go have a look in the Library, Resources section, Noteworthy files. Beware, some of these were just for the Summer Sing, so don't download the wrong ones!

Also, for the avoidance of confusion: I confirm that all pieces will be sung in the original language – huzzah! – so for pity's sake, get used to Russian, German, French...

Can the remaining Tyndale tenors and basses search their hearts and see if they wouldn't care to join us? It would be appreciated.

Committee meeting

The committee will have its next bash on Wednesday 10th (this week). The agenda is on the website.

By popular demand – a Quiz Sheet !!

Fish out your pound coins – our Grand Inquizitor (James 'Flying Fingers' Corbett) has prepared another quiz for you to wrap your grey cells around. On sale at the Bring and Buy table. Closing date October 27 (which I forgot to type on the sheet), so plenty of time to work away at it.

 Important Date for your Diary **

It has taken a gozillion emails, but we have been able to secure the wonderful LINDA CORCORAN (see last week's notices) to give us a vocal technique workshop on Thursday 23 October, 7.30pm in our usual rehearsal venue.

I truly cannot speak too highly of Linda – her own singing talent, her professionalism, her inspirational enthusiasm and love for singing – just wonderful. And a cracking sense of humour, to boot.

Miss it, and you'll kick yourselves.

PLEASE KEEP THE EVENING FREE.

More details to follow.

And finally...

From a Parish Magazine:

"The peacemaking meeting scheduled for today has been cancelled due to a conflict."
