

03/11/2008 Choir Notices

Rehearsal 13 of 14

This week: Part 1.

Next week: Part 2 (in Methodist Church)

Concert Stuff

Remember – your Concert Manager (staging, mainly) is Anne Shipton, and Concert Secretary (front of house, mainly) is Lisa Randell. Their role is one of coordination; they must have lots of willing hands to get the job done. Please volunteer yourself (or your long-suffering partner) when Anne or Lisa ask for help.

As you know, Tyndale likes to present a professional, friendly event, which is only possible if everyone pitches in. Everyone is on duty!

Lisa will be selling interval drinks tickets to members next Monday, so please bring your dosh. (Wine £1.50, juice 50p) It helps enormously if you also buy tickets for your guests (you can always get the money out of them later!) – this saves a lot of fuss and hassle on concert night.

Tickets, please

Your envelopes, stuffed with cash/cheques, with details entered on the front, and any unsold tickets, MUST be handed in at next week's rehearsal AT THE LATEST.

(For those who don't appreciate why:

1. it makes life easier for our Treasurer, who has to log everything and do the banking
2. it gives us an idea of audience size and therefore what we have to cater for (drinks, etc)
3. we need any unsold tickets back for the sales on the door on the night.)

A note of thanks

...to Chas Wright of Uley Brewery; thanks to Mary Wright (soprano) the Brewery has generously allowed us to borrow their van for staging transportation. A huge sigh of relief all round.

Another note of thanks

...to Carole McDonald (alto), who has offered us some storage space for the staging, which gets us out of jail pro tem. We are still looking for a long-term solution. Keep your thinking caps on and ask around.

Committee Vacancies

The constant repetition is working. The count of 2009 committee vacancies is now ONE. Lovely Lynette Magnone has offered to be Librarian. Now, who wants to be Treasurer? Perhaps that's a little optimistic. I'll re-phrase: who will offer to be Treasurer? Short arms and deep pockets an absolute requirement.

Thornbury's Workshop

(There are some flyers in the coffee room.)

Do give me your name if you wish to sign up – that way, we might qualify for the special discounted rate for Tyndalers. We are only 4 at the moment!

A rash of concerts...

We open the batting, but our sister South Cotswold societies are all hard at it in November:

Thornbury – Elijah – 22 Nov

Stroud – Messiah – 22 Nov

Cirencester – Rutter Mag. and Haydn Maria-Theresien Mass – 29 Nov

Do go and see how the others do it!

And finally...

From a Parish Magazine:

"Ladies, don't forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Bring your husbands."

TAKE THE SLOG OUT OF CHRISTMAS SHOPPING!

LET YOUR FINGERS DO THE WALKING,
VISIT THE TYNDALE WEBSITE SHOP !

John Lewis, Marks and Sparks, PC World (you can opt to collect in store), Amazon, Musicroom, Millets, HMV, Red Letter Days, BHS, and Ticketmaster. If you send gift tokens, it still qualifies and generates commission.