

11/12/2008 Choir Notices

Amberley Carol Concert

Rehearsals:

1. 24.11 in Methodist Church
2. 01.12 in Methodist Church
3. 09.12 (Tuesday) in Amberley Church
4. 11.12 (Thursday) short rehearsal and then concert in Amberley Church.

Amberley Concert night

Please arrive at 6.30pm for a quick spit-and-polish rehearsal (if this is problematic for you, just do your best and arrive when you can).

If you are bringing audience members with you, they might like to partake of a libation in the Amberley Inn for half an hour... it will make our performance sound even better!

For the love of the audience ...

1. It's Advent, not a requiem mass. Be joyful.
2. Check your 'singing face' in the bathroom mirror, and ask yourself if you would pay £6 to watch it.
3. Make the necessary corrections and aim for three quidsworth at the very least.
4. If the above made you smile, you'll be half way there.

Thornbury Workshop - February

Those of you who indicated you fancied a bash at the Bach Magnificat, I'll be in touch in the new year. Jos Gregson (Thornbury secretary) is off yomping in the Falklands, so won't need our bump and money till then. We are 9 so far – it'll be a jolly day out and good prep for the B minor Mass. If anyone else wishes to join the charabanc, just drop me a line.

Signing off

I can't promise, but this may be the last you'll hear from me until the new year. It has been a very busy and exciting twelve months for the TCS. I hope that you have all enjoyed your singing and will come back bright-eyed and bushy-tailed next March when we restart.

You will receive your copy of the newsletter in early March, so there's no chance you'll forget to come back!

May I wish you a peaceful Christmas, and health, wealth and happiness for 2009.

Julia