Open Rehearsal

Tonight's the night. Publicity Wendy has been advertising it, and it is to be hoped that you have all been cajoling friends and neighbours into attending. Do remember to introduce any newcomers to Ian and to the Secretary, and sort them out with music for the evening from Lynette.

Cheques for £49 payable to Tyndale Choral Society...

Subs are still due! Leave it too long and our Treasurer (who might that be?) will be extracting £50 for later payers.

AGM

We'll rattle through the AGM tonight after the coffee break. If we are quick, we might even do a bit more singing!

Unfortunately for us, Chairman John Ewer and wife Glenis are on a well deserved holiday in Madeira, but Dick Skinner has kindly agreed to Chair the meeting for us.

And finally...

A Very Welcome Addition to "Team GB"...

Congratulations, Wendy (Thomas), on your newly acquired British citizenship. We sincerely hope that the £750 this process cost you proves a wise investment. We are grateful for this generous contribution to the 'bankers' pension pot subsidy fund'. Although most would question your sense of timing, the economy being as it is, we certainly admire your never-say-die spirit and welcome you warmly into this sometimes green and pleasant land.
