Rehearsal 9 of 13

Out of action...

Having risked life and limb on the coastal path for two weeks without incident, I slipped in the Tesco car park in Haverfordwest and did some damage to my left leg. I'm staying at home this Monday as I won't know till Tuesday (scan results) exactly what I've managed to mangle and I don't want to risk making it any worse. At the very least, I'm going to be out of full ambulatory working order for some weeks.

Things will tick along nicely whether or not a secretary is with you at rehearsals, but someone is going to have to take on the Wotton Town Hall Teas as overall coordinator... it's an important fundraiser, and cannot slip through the cracks; a volunteer is needed pronto. Date: Sunday 21 June. I have a 'how to' sheet for whoever is kind enough to take it on.

The cake stall is on the following Saturday, but the Dursley guys tend to run this like clockwork.

I hope the cake-bakers among you are limbering up!

Concert programme advertisers

Dick Skinner (bass) does the programme for us. Please do your bit by finding some advertisers for us; £15 for a full A5 page, £10 for a half. As I say every time, if we don't get advertisers, we'll have to charge for the programmes to recoup our costs. Please see Dick for further details.

Additional rehearsals - conductor

27 July and 3 August – As Ian will be living it up on his QM2 jolly for these dates, we are delighted to have secured the services of Chris Swain to take these rehearsals. Chris is the conductor of Wycliffe CS and known to some of us; we are sure you will enjoy his approach. Some of you will probably be away on hols, but please make sure you have this in your diaries... remember, the Bach is a tough challenge and we need all the rehearsal we can get.
