Rehearsal 10 of 13

Town Hall Teas at Wotton - Sunday 13 June, 2pm

Cakes and volunteers, please.

Oo-er, missus; due to my hols and the Bank Holiday, this has crept up on us. It's this week, Sunday - 13th June. This is an important fund raiser, and gives us a chance to raise our profile in Wotton. There is always good craic in the kitchen, and you have the chance to get to know other members a bit better over the cake stands. The work is divided into three short shifts - you can sign up for a single shift or more if you like. Please sign up on the lists in the coffee room whether you are a baker or a kitchen slave (or both). Many thanks.

Last gong for lunch

We are currently 73 for the birthday luncheon on 4 July at the Hare and Hounds. I am about to finalise the paperwork and send off a large cheque, so if anyone still wishes to join us, and you would be very welcome indeed, NOW is the time to act!

If you have not yet paid the balance due, please do so this Monday, and hand in your menu choice sheets to Julia. Thanks.

Three line whip

A reminder that we will have a session with Bronwen Mills on Thursday 24 June, 7.30, usual rehearsal venue.

We should all have the notes well and truly sorted by then (if we haven't already!) and Bronwen will sharpen us up on technique, so that we can give of our best to our ticket buying public at the concert.

There is no extra charge for attending this workshop – it is in the year's budget. But make no mistake, there is no such thing as a free workshop! You are paying for it one way or another, so do take full advantage of Bronwen's visit.

The committee would appreciate a full attendance.

The Bring and Buy Table

Estelle and Sue are doing a fine job with the bring and buy table – it is a very successful fund raiser for us.

Do remember to recycle your books through the table, and bring any surplus seedlings, plants, garden produce, pots of marmalade, jam, or chutney, .. in fact anything legal.

The girls are set up before 7.30, so swing by the table on your way in for first choice.

We are also offering the odds and ends from the Tyndale score library to members; what isn't sold will go through Amazon or similar. Keep your eyes skinned as the weeks go by.

Summer Concert ticket sales

As always, we cannot rely on 'walk-ups', which are usually about 30 people, regardless of how many tickets we have pre-sold. We HAVE to sell our concerts ourselves, by encouraging friends and family, and accosting innocent strangers if necessary. Be bold. The concert will be lovely, with two very good soloists singing some songs to add to the mix.

Remember you can sell tickets in advance with a one pound discount (ie, £8 less £1 = £7). No discount on the under 16s ticket of £2.

You all did brilliantly last November with your ticket sales, so our budget target of 120 presold and 30 walk-ups should be easily attainable.

As last year, please cross out a number on the Ticket Totaller on the noticeboard, when you have sold a ticket (ie, when you have the money in your sweaty hand).

Our Nigel Perrin/Elijah workshop

Registration forms and cheques are already arriving from outside Tyndale. I would like to remind you (it was in the newsletter) that if Tyndalers sign up AND PAY before we break up in July, you can pay £12 for the workshop.

NP is quite aghast that we're selling it so cheaply at £15 – others are more bullish. So you are getting a real bargain.
