Rehearsal 3 of 13

Workshop Watch

Signed up so far:

Tyndalers: 16
Others: 12

Frighteningly short of break-even.

A very good egg...

Tenor Dr Peter Harney has very kindly agreed to take a turn at the piano for us when James is off on his hols in September, and when Bronwen comes to us in October, and he refuses to be compensated for his efforts. What a gentleman! What a scholar! What a star! Many thanks, Peter.

Staging Storage

We know that at least two members are actively working on finding new storage for our staging kit. Any news on progress from anyone else? Deadline mid August.

School's Out for Summer

Have a lovely summer break, but do keep your larynx in good working order, and we'll see you again on 6 September.

The August Sing

For those who wish to keep going, please do join us at North Nibley's St Martin's Church, 7.30pm on Mondays (2nd, 9th, 16th, 23rd) when John Hicks will be introducing us to some of the Elijah choruses in preparation for the workshop, and also some other contrasting pieces.

It's just for fun, no performance. Cost £5 for the lot, including Audrey's refreshments. Tyndale is supporting the Sing by paying for the accompanist; profits to St Martin's (in lieu of hire fee).

Sign up online, or get a friend to do it for you. It is open to anyone who wishes to have a sing, so bring your friends.

The abridged Elijah

So that you can concentrate your preparatory efforts, Nigel Perrin's selection of choruses is as follows:

(Novello)

- 1 Help Lord
- 5 Yet doth the Lord see it not
- 7 For He shall give His angels
- 10 As God the Lord
- 11 Baal we cry to thee
- 12 Call him louder
- 13 Call him louder – Baal hear and answer
- 15 Cast thy burden
- 16 (p79-84) The fire descends
- 20 Thanks be to God
- 22 Be not afraid
- 23 The Lord hath exalted thee
- 24 Woe to him
- 28 Lift thine eyes
- 29 He watching over Israel
- 34 Behold! God the Lord passed by
- 35 Holy Holy Holy
- 36 Go return upon thy way
- 38 Then did Elijah
- 41a O come ev'ry one that thirsteth
- 42 And then shall your light break forth
