A Jolly Good Haydn!

In Haydn's anniversary year, 200 years since his death, Tyndale Choral Society cordially invites you to a relaxed day of singing in the lovely Church of St James the Great, Dursley. This event is multi-tasking: it raises funds to help pay for the Winter concert orchestra hire; the free evening concert encourages the community to come and hear what choral societies are about, without the expense of a ticket (although a retiring collection will be taken); the student soloists have an opportunity to gain experience of a public performance; and last, not least, we choral singers have a grand day out!

Programme: Haydn The Seasons - Novello edition
(see back page for selection details)
Afternoon Workshop and Evening Performance
Conductor – Ian Harrold
Accompanist – James Corbett
Guest Soloists

Venue: St James the Great, Silver Street, Dursley (opp. Town Hall)
(parking: at Long Street, or May Lane opp. The Old Spot Inn)

Timetable: Saturday, 26th September
Rehearsals 1pm – 5pm with 30 minute tea break
Complimentary coffee/tea/juices and cake will be available

For those not wishing to go home between the rehearsal and the evening performance, a supper will be available in the Parish Room to the rear of the Church (cost £5) – booking is required.

Evening performance 7.30pm
Audience entry is free of charge (with retiring collection).

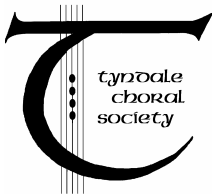

Scores: These are available for you to hire (cost £1).

Tickets: £10 for participation in the workshop and performance

Dress: Smart casual

Booking: Please book your place in advance, to allow us to ensure all can be accommodated and catered for

We thank you for your support, and look forward very much to seeing you on the day!

For those who wish to do some preparation -

We will sing a selection from each Season, which will include the following:

Come gentle Spring; Be propitious; God of Light; Behold on high he mounts; Hark! The deep tremendous voice (thunderstorm); Now cease the conflicts; Hark! The mountains resound; Let the wheel move gaily (spinning song); A wealthy Lord who long had loved; Then comes the dawn.

Beware! the above is given as a guide only. If time allows, then other chorus pieces may be added. (The soloists will also have their showcase arias.)
